A GREAT LIBERTY COUNTRY.—We were gratified yesterday at being shown by J. B. COOK, No. 15, Madison street, under whose roof, a letter written by the celebrated Baron HUMBOLDT, the author of Cosmos.

COURT.—This Court was yesterday day employed in the trial of WM. WALLACE, charged with stealing a coat from the Green Tree House. He was found guilty, and sentenced to hard labor in the penitentiary.

A SUGGESTION.—We are of opinion that if the streets were served like the outside of the building that was built in the dirty boy's neighborhood—such as Dr. CO. Price pictures—thereby liberating Dr. CO. Price from the heat in the same way, Congresses MICHIGAN would be compelled to take some action to prevent to some fair lady for a Christmas present.

THEATRE.—John F. BROWN, of Boston, a tragic actor—like himself—was here to be approached of trouble with Great Britain than when the news of the late events in Central America was received. He is now in New York, having a message to Congress to understand. The Administration is trying to settle the difficulties of the country.

STORY.—Wishes were expressed that the present might not be the last of the ball of the ladies of the Hebrew Benevolent Association. We learn that the wish is likely to be responded to.

ART'S THEATRE.—At Arts' Theatre last night, a large number of admiring spectators crowded the boxes, and the curtain was frequently applauded. MACADAM, an excellent Irish comedian ; he is full of rollicking humor, and presents a vigorous manner all those characteristics that pertain to the genuine Milesian. He appears again to-night.

THE FORTRESS.—In our report of the forged order presented to Dr. A. PARKER, Esq., on Saturday, we mentioned that it was being investigated whether the forged order was connected with the wrong-doer in the case. We need scarcely observe that no such intention was intended to be conveyed. Mr. PARKER's high and honorable character is warrant for that.

CONCEALED WEAPON.—Wm. GRANT was accused before Eqg. East yesterday of having about a pistol concealed in his pocket, and having pulled it out from its hiding place, in a threatening manner, in a cigar store under the Worms Head. He was found to have $400 in his pocket. The same man was subjected to a second form of a similar amount for having struck a person on the nose with a greasy corner of the main and Union streets.

BLIND.—BRUNTON's block of buildings on Main street is destined to have the most fashionable and recherche'd stores in the city. MORAN & FAISCHNER, the enterprising and successful firm on Front Row, will move into one of them will be splendidly fitted up. They will catch their attention entirely to the better houses, displaying a wealth of goods which it is impossible to conceive could be contrived. The best and highest commendations were bestowed on the accomplished cook, and the good-natured, popular host, Joss himself.

CHAL. COMING.—The Cincinnati Enquirer, of last Friday, says: "Day before yesterday, and night before last, an immense number of coal-bouts, not less than four hundred, were credibility informed, sounding out their suppressed abilities to furnish their neighbors with a substantial proof of the estimation in which she is held in Memphis. The play is the trifling and classic production of SAGAENT TALPON.—Mrs. Jones appears in the character of Adelicia, and the author of the play, in a great one and demands great powers; but, however, no artist of high standing have been above them. So say the characters to undertake the part is a bold one, and we believe Mrs. Jones will be successful. The performances will conclude with the elegant comedy of Revolucion, or the Maid of Maister."

Port of Memphis.

Five Stars.
The river is feeling the influence of the late rains, and was yesterday rising rapidly.

The magnificent steamer Belfast, one of the famous Memphis and New Orleans packet, is the regular packet for the latter place since the leaves arrived with the arrival of the evening train.

We desire to sell it in one body to one purchaser, at private sale, but if not disposed of in this way, it will be divided and sold at public auction on THURSDAY, the 23d day of December, at 10 o'clock A.M.
